

ARTHUR ELDER - DETROIT FEDERATION OF TEACHERS COLLECTION
20 Manuscript boxes

Processed August 1965

BY PB

Accession Number 75

This collection was deposited with the Labor History Archives in 1964 by Mrs. Arthur Elder, Francis Comfort, Florence Sweeny and Blanche Rinehart.

Arthur Elder was a Detroit active in the labor movement and particularly concerned with the AFL affiliate, the American Federation of Teachers. He served as vice-president of the AFT and president and secretary of the Michigan and Detroit federations. Elder was also director of the University of Michigan Workers Education Service. His dismissal from this post, in 1948, produced a controversy over the influence of General Motors in Michigan and University politics.

The collection covers the period from 1921 to 1953, with emphasis on the 1940's.

Among the correspondents are:

Albert Einstien

Frank Martel

Frank Murphy

Mark Starr

Norman Thomas

Arthur Vandenberg

Important subjects covered are:

History of the American Federation of Teachers

The AFT and the Communist issue

New York City teacher's dispute

Federal aid to education

Flint, Michigan dismissal cases

Tenure for teachers

The Workers' Education Service
