Accession No. 126

The records of Joseph Piconke were deposited with the Labor History Archives in 1964.

Joseph H. Piconke was born in 1909. In 1927, he began working as a tool and die maker for the Hudson Motor Car Company. In 1937 he joined UAW Local 154 and was elected to its bargaining committee. He was later elected second Vice-President. In 1941, he took a position as an Apprenticeship Field Representative with the U.S. Department of Labor. Later, he served as a staff member of the UAW Skilled Trades Department and worked as a labor relations consultant in Detroit. In 1961, he accepted a position with the federal mediation and conciliation service.

Joseph Piconke covers the period from 1942 to 1963.
