Herman Wolf was born in Far Rockaway, Long Island, New York on January 22, 1912. From his youth, he was interested in reform movements, and during his years at the University of Pennsylvania, he became an active member of the Socialist Party. In 1934, he began a career as a labor newspaper editor and publicity agent.

OUTLINE OF CAREER OF HERMAN WOLF

Education, 1929-1933

Graduated from Woodmere Academy in 1929. Spent two and one half years at the Wharton School, University of Pennsylvania, and one year at the University of Chicago, receiving B.A. in Economics, 1933.

Labor Editor and Publicity Agent, 1934-1941

1934-1935 edited a weekly newspaper in Bedford, Massachusetts and another in Paterson, New Jersey. Wrote publicity articles, press releases, radio broadcasts and pamphlets for the Textile Workers Union. 1935-1936 worked for the Dressmakers Joint Board, International Ladies Garment Workers' Union, assisting on publicity for dress strike, including staging of mass meeting at Madison Square Garden. 1936-37 employed by Amalgamated Clothing Workers of America, writing speakers' notes, speeches and general publicity articles in conjunction with the American labor Party for the 1936 campaign. For a few months, worked as a financial reporter for the Journal of Commerce. 1938, Editorial Assistant, Division of Placement and Unemployment Insurance, New York State Department of Labor. This was a general public relations job. 1939, Radio Director of Greater New York Fund. Directed radio publicity for twenty-two English speaking and foreign language radio stations with every type of program from spot announcement to two hour shows. 1939-1940, operated own public relations firm in New York City. Most important assignment was for International Ladies Garment Union, in directing the campaign that led to the organization of the New York Dress Institute.

Employee of U.S. Government, 1941-1944

1941, British Management-Labor Commission. Directed labor-public relations at request of U.S. Government for eight man team sent by Prime Minister Churchill to inspect one hundred defense plants. 1941 Labor Defends America, wrote this war handbook, discussing labor's role in production, morale, war controls, and training. This book was used as a basis for a confidential survey on labor morale in Connecticut for the War Department.

1941-1943, War Finance U.S. Treasury. Helped to direct promotion of U.S. War Bonds by writing articles in the labor press, by planning feature events and by initiating payroll saving plans.

THE HERMAN WOLF COLLECTION

1943-1944, War Production Board Promotion director with staff of fifteen employees servicing 5,000 war plant Labor-Management Production Committees with ideas and materials for production efficiency.

President of Fuller Houses Inc., Wichita, Kansas, 1944-1946

Directed staff of seventy employees who pioneered in the mass production of housing. Mainly concerned with the publicity works.

Editor for Bridgeport Herald, 1947-1950

Edited four large supplements for Sunday newspaper and Labor-Management relations on U.S. Progress. The paper had a state-wide circulation of 100,000.

Connecticut Politics, 1947-1953

1947-1950, Secretary of Connecticut Chapter of Americans for Democratic Action. Helped in general publicity and in making arrangements for ceremonial dinners. Helped with publicity for campaigns of A.D.A. sponsored candidates - Laurence O'Toole, William Benton, and Chester Bowles. 1949-1952, was Democratic candidate from Stratford for State House of Representatives, 1949, and in 1950 was elected Chairman of the Stratford Democratic Town Committee.

This collection covers the period from 1924-1958, and it covers the phases of the career of Herman Wolf which are mentioned above.
