Accession Number 322

The papers of A.G. Shultz were deposited with the Labor History Archives in June 1968 by Mr. Shultz.

A.G. Shultz was an early member of Local 222 in Oshawa Ontario and participated in their 1937 strike. For several years he was financial secretary of Local 222 and publisher of the "Oshaworker". From his position as financial secretary he became one of the original organizers of the credit union movement in Canada. A long time member of the Canadian Reuther Caucus, in the 1940's he was president of the Canadian Labor Congress. He is currently a member of the Board of Directors of the Canadian Credit Union Society.

The A.G. Shultz Collection covers the period from 1937 to 1967.

Important subjects are:

1937 GM Strike, Oshawa
Credit Unions
Political Action
