THE LIONEL STEPHAN COLLECTION
One-half Manuscript Boxes

Processed: September 25, 1970

By: KD

Accession No. 410

The papers of Lionel Stephan were deposited with the Labor History Archives in September 1, 1970 by Wallace W. Anderson, Executive Assistant President's Dept., Airline Pilots Association.

Lionel Stephan worked as one of the organizers of the Airline Pilots Association (A.L.P.A.).

When Glenn T. Fields, "Key Man" on the Cincinnati end of the Embry Riddle Lines, was transferred to Memphis, the A.L.P.A. was left without a representative. Stephan took up where Fields left off working to establish an Executive Council and an organization which the airlines accepted as the representative of the pilots.

Contained in the collection are notes and bulletins which show the establishment of the A.L.P.A.

The Lionel Stephan Collection covers the period from 1931 to 1932.

Important subjects are: Organizing the A.L.P.A.
Appointment of "Key Men"

Among the correspondents are: David L. Behncke, President A.L.P.A.
Rex Harker, "Key Man" A.L.P.A. T.W.
Barker, Administrative Secretary
A.L.P.A.
Wallace W. Anderson, Executive Asst.,
Pres. Dept. A.L.P.A.

Description of Series

Boxes Description

1 The Airlines Pilots Association series contains correspondence, notes, bulletins, and publications of the A.L.P.A., covering a period from 1931 to 1932. The material is arranged by topic and then chronologically.

Box 1 Airline Pilots Association

1-2. Correspondence, June 1931 - February 1932
3. Notes, undated
4-5. Bulletins, October - November 1931
6. The Airline Pilot, 1932