The papers of Morris Field were placed in the Archives of Labor and Urban Affairs in June of 1984 by Art Shy of the UAW Education Department and were opened for research in June of 1991.

Mr. Field was an early member of Dodge Local No. 3 in Detroit. In 1943 he worked in the Washington office of the United Auto Workers and with its Ford Department. In 1945 he was assigned to the Agricultural Implement Department and later to the Competitive Shop Department. In 1951 he was assigned to John Deere and in 1953 to the Agricultural Implement Department, working out of Region 4.

The papers of Mr. Field consist of clippings, pamphlets, and memorabilia relating to his career as a union organizer and field worker for the UAW.

Non-manuscript materials:

Some dozen photographs relating to Mr. Field's work with the UAW have been placed in the Archives' Audio-Visual Collection.
