

THE LOCAL 889 COLLECTION

34 Manuscript Boxes & Scrap book

Processed: May 1967

Accession No. 40

By: McS

The papers of Local 889 were deposited with the Labor History Archives in Jan. 1967 by VeraLentine (recording secretary), and 1962 by Nick Hyskha.

Local 889, UAW, is an amalgamated white collar local serving Chrysler plants and Chrysler's suppliers in southeastern Michigan. The primary Units featured in this collection are Amplex, Auto Equipment Co., Hudson Sales, Kaiser- Frazer, King-Seeley, Tank Plant, Jefferson-Kerchival, Dodge Main, Marysville Parts, Mopar, Dodge Truck, John R-Highland Park.

The amalgamated union was established in 1940 and has served Chrysler-related plant continually.

The Local 889 Collection covers the period from 1943 to 1965.

Boxes	Description of Series
-------	-----------------------

1-17	General File
------	--------------

Material used by the central office of Local 889, consisting of correspondence sent and received plus minutes of meetings and contract negotiations. Many assorted files are included which pertain to the smaller units, or those which had little material in the collection as a whole.

18-20	Files of the John R-Highland Park Unit.

21-25	Files of the Dodge Truck Unit.
-------	--------------------------------

26-34	Files of the Mopar (Parts) Unit.
