Abstract:	The American Federation of Labor-Congress of Industrial Organizations (AFL-CIO) Metropolitan Detroit is the central organization for all Michigan AFL-CIO unions that have locals in Wayne, Oakland, and Macomb Counties. Their records pertain to activities specifically in Wayne County, prior to the merger of the three county councils in 1986, including those of its former presidents Frank Martel (1948-1956), Al Barbour (1958-1967) and its former vice-president Alex Fuller (1959-1967). The records reflect the important role played in offering financial assistance to organizing drives, ending factional and jurisdictional disputes, and supporting political candidates

History

The Wayne County AFL-CIO is the central organization for all AFL-CIO unions that have locals in Wayne County. This organization has grown along with the rise in unionization in the Detroit area. The leadership of Frank Martel was particularly significant in gaining acceptance of unions by the larger community. When the local unions supported it, the County organization was very important in offering financial assistance to organizing drives, in ending factional and jurisdictional disputes, and in supporting political candidates.

The records in this collection pertain to many areas of the Wayne County AFL-CIO history from 1918-1967, including the activities of Al Barbour and Alex Fuller. Al Barbour was elected president of the Wayne County AFL-CIO in 1958 and served in that position until his death in February of 1967. While President, he served on a number of public and private committees pertaining to Michigan, Wayne County, and Detroit. Alex Fuller was elected vice-president of the Wayne County AFL-CIO in 1959 and retained this position until June, 1967. He is currently with the United Steelworkers Union. While vice-president of the Wayne County AFL-CIO, he served on a number of public and private committees pertaining to Michigan, Wayne County and Detroit. It should be pointed out that there are records of Alex Fuller interspersed throughout this entire collection.

For additional information on important topics included in this collection please see the Part 1 Index of Subjects, and series scope and content notes.

PART 2

Series 3: President's Files

Scope and Contents

"This series contains 22 boxes. The first nineteen boxes (31-49) contain the files of Frank X. Martel, President of the Detroit and Wayne County Federation of Labor (AFL), prior to 1956. Martel's files were alphabetically arranged by subject. This group covers the years between 1948-1956. Boxes 50-52 contain files created by President AJ Barbour after the 1958 AFL-CIO merger in Detroit. These are correspondence files arranged chronologically, plus a file of articles, speeches, and editorials 1959-64, arranged by year."
