

1970 UAW Region 1-B Leadership Institute
1 Manuscript Box

Processed: August, 1970

Accession No. 404

By: AHM

Materials from the 1970 UAW Region 1-B Leadership Institute were deposited with the Archives of Labor History and Urban Affairs in July, 1970. The collection was accumulated as the result of participation in the Institute by Ann Huber Maurer.

The Sixteenth Annual Region 1-B Leadership Institute, July 19-24, 1970, was held at the UAW Family Education Center at Black Lake, 25 miles south of the straits of Mackinac in Michigan's Lower Peninsula. Present were 255 students representing 36 locals in Region 1-B, 31 spouses of students, 18 staff members plus 6 spouses, and 33 invited guests. Theme of the summer school emphasized a participating membership to mobilize collective action in the shops, offices and community. The topic was "You and Your Standard of Living: Bargaining and Balloting 1970."

The collection covers the period from July 19 to July 24, 1970.

Important subjects are:

Collective Bargaining, 1970. Political
Elections, 1970.

Among the participants were:

Jim Bradley
Pat Caruso
Doug Fraser
Pat Greathouse
Sander Levin
William Lucas
Olga Madar

Emil Mazey
Dennis McDermott
Jim McGahey
Ken Morris
Victor Reuther
Gus Scholle
G. Mennen Williams

Series I
General Materials

Box 1 Map & Fact Sheet, Family Education Center
 Student Program
 Instructor's Manual
 Student Notes & Materials, Arbitration Class
 Speakers & Program Participants
 Badge, Diploma, Miscellaneous