The papers of the Los Angeles Joint Council Office were deposited with the Archives of Labor History and Urban Affairs in October of 1970.

The Los Angeles Joint Council Office of the Air Line Pilots Association was established in January of 1950 and served as the headquarters of H.B. Cox, Regional Vice-President of ALPA. In July of 1952, ALPA initiated a new policy of setting up regional offices, of which Los Angeles was the first. The primary responsibility of the Regional Representative is to negotiate employment agreements with the airlines in his area. He also prepares grievance cases and acts as assistant to the regional vice-president.

The collection covers the period from 1939 to 1970, with special emphasis on the years 1947 to 1960.

Important subjects are:

- Steward and stewardess organizing
- American Airlines strike, 1957-1958
- Pan American Airlines strike, 1957
- Western Air Lines strike, 1958

Series Description

Series I - General Office Files, Boxes 1-3

This series consists mainly of correspondence between the ALPA Home Office and the Los Angeles Joint Council Office and between the Joint Council Office and the pilots' local executive councils of various airlines. Aside from routine correspondence, there are special files on accident reports, air safety and engineering, stewards and stewardesses, Master Executive Council meeting minutes for a number of airlines, and negotiators' reports. The "personal" files of H.B. Cox deal with safety problems and conferences and the opening of the Los Angeles Office. The "personal" files of H.M. Jones are concerned mainly with negotiations and questions of policy. This series covers the years 1947 to 1965, especially the 1950's.
Series II - Airlines Files, Boxes 4-22
This series is arranged alphabetically by name of airline, and consists of multiple copies of agreements, amendments to agreements, letters of agreement, supplemental agreements, etc., between the various airlines and ALPA. Also present are negotiating files, general correspondence, and files on specific topics of interest to the pilots of a particular airline. For some airlines, especially American, Flying Tiger, Pan American, Trans World, United, West Coast, and Western, there are also pilot grievances, minutes of Local and Master Executive Council meetings, accident reports, strike manuals, ballots and correspondence, retirement plans, etc. This series covers the years 1939 to 1970, especially 1947 to 1960.
