

THE UAW WASHINGTON OFFICE-
LEGAL DIVISION COLLECTION

Papers, 1946-1964
(Predominantly, 1948-1963)

8 linear feet

Accession Number 656

The papers of the UAW Washington Office-Legal Division were placed in the Archives of Labor History and Urban Affairs in July 1971 by the UAW.

The UAW Washington Office was created in January of 1943, and one of its divisions was concerned with the activity of the National Labor Relations Board. The UAW President's Reports indicate that by 1946 this function was absorbed by the Legal Division. When the Washington Office of the UAW was abolished in 1963, the Legal Department established its own office in Washington.

The papers of this collection reflect the work of the Legal Department with the National Labor Relations Board. The records in this collection were created by Lowell Goerlich, Donald Montgomery and Samuel Jacobs.

Important subjects covered in this collection are:

Kohler Company Cases, 1951-1961
UAW dispute with the Wisconsin Motor Corporation over production ceilings and piece work, 1961-1963

Contents

16 manuscript boxes

Series I, Boxes 1-16

Mostly legal records - briefs, affidavits, court decisions and court proceedings. Some correspondence, a few notes and several published agreements. Most of the records concern National Labor Relations Board cases. The cases involve disputes over work rules, bargaining rights, jurisdictional problems, and individual grievances.

Series I
Boxes 1-16

National Labor Relations Board Cases, 1946-1964. Mostly legal records - briefs, affidavits, court decisions and court proceedings. Some correspondence, a few notes, and several published agreements which pertain to the cases. Some of the agreements are marked. Most of the cases concern the UAW and the companies within its collective bargaining jurisdiction. The files are arranged alphabetically by name of company, and the published agreements are at the end of the series.
