

THE IWW DETROIT-ANN ARBOR BRANCH COLLECTION

Papers, 1973-1982
(Predominantly, 1979-1981)

2 linear feet

Accession Number 948
L.C. Number MS

The papers of the IWW Detroit-Ann Arbor Branch were placed in the Archives of Labor and Urban Affairs in August and October of 1979 and May of 1982 by Eric Glatz, IWW organizer and were opened for research in October of 1984.

This collection deals primarily with the activities of the Ann Arbor section in the late 1970s and early 1980s. During this time, the branch was instrumental in organizing the employees of several area businesses including a restaurant, print shop and particularly the University of Michigan campus bookstore. The branch also maintained contact with Canadian labor organizations and expressed an interest in contemporary issues regarding the rights of women and senior citizens as well as the economic and foreign policies of the Reagan administration.

The papers of the IWW Detroit-Ann Arbor branch reflect the group's organizing efforts in the Ann Arbor area and their involvement in other social and political concerns.

Important subjects covered in the collection are:

Organizing efforts Boycotts and Strikes

Among the important correspondents are:

Frank Cedarvall	Shelby Shapiro
Eric Glatz	Fred Thompson

An index to subjects and correspondents will be found on p. 5
