History

Part 1 and Part 2: In 1965, Peter Velasco was among the leaders of the 1,500 Filipino Americans involved in touching off the five-year strike and boycott of grapes in Delano, California – the incident that became the impetus of the United Farm Workers’ creation. A member of the Agricultural Workers Organizing Committee, Velasco and his compatriots were joined eight days after their strike began by the Mexican-American National Farmworkers Association, led by Cesar Chavez. After a year of successful cooperation, the two groups merged into the new United Farmworkers, of which Velasco would become a leading and long-lasting member. Becoming a member of the executive board in 1971, Velasco remained with the Union until 1988, at which time he retired as a “secretary-treasurer emeritus.” Thereafter, in spite of his retirement, he and his wife remained closely involved with the UFW community, and actively volunteered in the running of the Cause’s La Paz headquarters, with Velasco serving on the board of a number of the UFW’s corporations. Velasco would remain a valued and contributing member of the UFW family until the time of his death in 1995.

Scope and Content

Part 1: The collection is divided into two sections: the first series is office files, largely from the time when Velasco was Stockton Area Director. The largest portion of the collection is Velasco's personal files from the early 1960s to the late 1970s.

Part 2: This collection includes materials relating to both the United Farm Workers movement and to Peter Velasco’s life more broadly, covering the span of 1942-2000. Though Velasco passed away in 1995, more recent materials, largely concerned with honoring his life, are also included. The portion of the collection given over the UFW materials includes minutes from various organizational boards, copies of their newsletters, legal files, files relating to international labor guests, personnel files, and files pertaining to the day to day running of the Union, the movement more broadly, and La Paz headquarters. Materials within the Velascos’ personal files largely consist of correspondence and photographs from their extensive network of friends, many of whom were also involved with the UFW. Also included is material relating to Velasco’s personal interests and hobbies, work history, membership in other organizations, and an extensive collection of audio-tapes, most of which relate to the UFW cause.

Arrangement

Part 1: Folders are computer-arranged alphabetically within each series, but may actually be dispersed throughout several boxes in the collection. Note carefully the box number for each folder heading.

Part 2: The collection is arranged into 2 series with 7 subseries.

Folders in each series are simply listed by their location within each box. They are not arranged, so any given subject may be dispersed throughout several boxes within each series.

Series 1: United Farm Workers Administrative Files, 1947-1997 (Box 1-10) Subseries A: General Administrative Files, 1947-1997 (Box 1-7) Subseries B: Legal Department Files, 1977-1986 (Box 8-9) Subseries C: La Paz Guest Program Files, 1978-1998 (Box 9) Subseries D: Allied Unions Files, 1972-1988 (Box 9-10) Subseries E: Personnel Files, 1972-1986 (Box 10)

Series 2: Peter and Dolores Velasco's Personal Files, 1942-2000 (Box 10-17) Subseries A: Correspondence, Interests and Journals, 1942-2000 (Box 10-14) Subseries B: Audiovisual Materials and Ephemera, 1960-1999 (Box 15-17)

Though materials are generally divided between United Farm Worker Files and the Velascos' personal files, significant overlap exists between the two due to the depth of the Velascos' commitment to the organization, even many years after retirement. Additionally, Series 2 includes a large amount of photographic material interwoven with other materials - folders with especially significant amounts will contain the word "photographs" in their titles.
