History

Hadassah, the Women's Zionist Organization of America, was founded in 1912 by Henrietta Szold in New York City with a mission to provide health care to the people living in Palestine. In 1916, Szold visited Detroit and helped start a local Hadassah chapter.

At first members gathered in women's homes, but by 1927 membership had reached 1,000 women. During the 1930s, Hadassah opened an office above the Linwood Post Office in Detroit. The group raised money through sewing groups, luncheons and lectures. By 1944, the group had grown so large that it was no longer feasible to operate as a single chapter, and geographic groups were formed across the region.

In 2017, the Greater Detroit Chapter of Hadassah celebrated its 100th anniversary. Through its fundraising efforts, Hadassah supports local, charitable projects as well as healthcare, research, education and social services programs in Israel.

Scope and Content

Part 1: The Greater Detroit Chapter of Hadassah Records document the history of the organization in the Detroit Metropolitan area. It is particularly comprehensive from the 1950s through 1990. Significant elements of the collection include administrative and fundraising records, newspaper clippings, and photographs and scrapbooks. The collection is divided into two parts:

This part includes 8 series: Series 1: Administration; Series 2: Clippings; Series 3: Correspondence; Series 4: Events; Series 5: Financials; Series 6: History; Series 7: Photographs; Series 8: Publications.

The materials include documents pertaining to the formation of the chapter, pamphlets and articles, correspondence to and from Hadassah, brochures and flyers advertising events, financial reports and tax returns, documentation of chapter history, photographs, and publications.

Part 2: This part consists of additional materials donated by Hadassah after the completion of Part 1. Most of the boxes contain administrative records, including correspondence and publications. Four oversized boxes mainly contain scrapbooks and photograph proof shoots.

Part 3: This part contains DVDs, photographic negatives and a CD. This material was transferred to the Reuther A-V Department.
