ID:	WSP001900_INV
Date [inclusive]:	1960-2003
Physical Description:	94 linear feet (94 SBs)
Language of the Material:	English
Abstract:	Dr. Otto Feinstein was professor of Political Science at Wayne State University from 1960 until his passing in 2003. While at Wayne State, Feinstein was an educational innovator, creating opportunities for students at all levels of life and making the classroom a space for activism. The collection reflects Feinstein's involvement with many key programs, centers, and initiatives, including the Southeast Michigan Regional Ethnic Heritage Study Center, To Educate the People (TEP), The Working Channel (TWC), Weekend College Program, Center for Peace and Conflict Studies, and more.
