Abstract

Dr. Olin Thomas began his career at what eventually became Wayne State University as an instructor in 1929. He became bursar in 1937, Assistant Director of Finance in 1938, Director of the Division of Finance in 1945, Vice President of Finance in 1953, and Vice President and Treasurer in 1956. He retired in 1968. These records contain documents pertaining to the Board of Governors, various university departments and schools, financial information, university operations, and extensive records of Wayne State University Foundation scholarships.
