Abstract

This collection consists of records generated by the Office of Admissions between 1958-1964, largely under the supervision of the College of Education's Assistant Dean, Joseph E. Hill (1962-1964). During this period Hill served as chairman or member of numerous admissions committees, including the admissions advisory committee and various ad hoc committees on curriculum, instruction, admissions, student teaching, and college administrative problems.

Many of the records from the committees that Hill served with can be found in this collection, as well as information on special and experimental projects, correspondence, commencement information, summaries of College of Education dissertations from 1949-1962, and information regarding the accreditation of teacher education.
