Our Class History
1939-1940

Dr. David D. Henry became executive vice-president of the University, and Dr. W. W. Whitehouse, Liberal Arts College dean.

Jerry Schnelker replaced "Ace" Cudillo, who was lost to the Tartars for the season because of injuries.

Adelle Wexler was chosen the first woman president of the Student Council.

Wayne turned into an official pilot-training center for the Civil Aeronautics Authority, and fifty students took the C.P.T. training.

Much to the delight of the instructors and the chagrin of the students, it was announced that membership on the Dean's list no longer excused absences.

Nicholas Fisher, candidate for President of Fresh class, promised to put Wayne on the Map just like Brown City.

Hatchet Hop ended Frosh-Soph Feud. Class games held at Belle Isle and the Frosh won.

WUBG's first broadcast from its own studio.

Drew Pearson, veteran Washington correspondent and author of syndicated column, told Wayne students at an assembly that he believed F. D. R. would seek a third term.

Fernand Baldensperger, noted professor of comparative literature from Harvard, gave a series of lectures to the Humanities class on Romanticism.

Rita Labadie was chosen Homecoming Queen, and Ina Ray Hutton's Band played for the big dance.

Tom Adams headed the J-Hop Committee for the Class of '41, and the great Duke Ellington's Orchestra supplied the music.

Sponsored by the Business Administration Club, the first annual Business Careers Conference was held, and it was very successful.

First Wayne U. Wintermarr held, and Kay Seamen elected president of the A.W.S.

Giant Post-card against war sent to President Roosevelt. The majority of American college students were at this time opposed to compulsory military service.

1940-1941

As Sophomores, the class was again led by Harold Gales.

There was a new inner glory when we came back—it was true we weren't freshmen any longer!

Got off to a drizzly start when class games suddenly became a dance in the girls' gym, thanks to overhanging clouds.

Wayne dropped the first football game in the new series with the University of Detroit, but the Wayne Band was conceded to be the most impressive thing on the field.

Soph Prom was our big splash. It was held the night before Thanksgiving, with Dick Hardenberg chairman, and Sylvia Stapleton was crowned Miss Wayne U.

Second annual Wintermarr, with Tommy Adams as general chairman, provided floor space for two Soph-sponsored booths. The class sponsored one, and the A.W.S. Soph Board had the public shooting beans at Adolph and Benito.

Dorothy Babcock was chosen Wayne's Pictorial Princess.

After an Alumni-Faculty-Student Committee talked the thing over, a Student Center project was offered to students and the city budget.

Wayne talent concocted the "Saddleshoes and Swing" radio show which was planned for presentation over Station W45D. Also given as a stage show, it made a hit with Waynites and local High schoolers.

With spring came the loafing on the front lawn, talking about life!

Then finals were on us again—horrors! The Class of '41 graduated, and the Class of '43 became Juniors.

1941-1942

Junior Class President was, of course, Harold Gales!

Dr. Smith named Counselor in charge of Student Activity, and Victor Spatelef appointed Counselor in charge of Men's Activities.

Student Activities curtailed by 25% cut in budget. As a result the Tartar teams suffered a 20% slash in budget.

Ollen Peters made new President of Mackenzie Board of Governors, Chuck Evans, President of Student Council, and J. C. Weeks, President of Interfraternity Council.

University of Detroit beat Wayne, 54-0—what a close game!

Gas House Gang led A.W.S. in Collegian sales to send the band to Lansing.

Mary Brand, Chairman of Wintermarr, with Warner Pressman assisting.

Association of American Universities placed Wayne on approved list of Institutions—we were proud!

CLASS OF '43
Two Queens of the year: Helen Kissel, Homecoming Queen, and Mary Maloney, Miss Wayne U.

Robert Hayes headed the J-Hop Committee for the Class of '43 and Frankie Masters supplied the music.

Two great sorrows... no spring vacation, and new NO SMOKING order!

Paul Kaczander won the Fred Allen contest, and went to New York with Wayne's gifts!

Auditorium jammed as Anita Louise makes an appearance at a Wayne Convoy.

And again we go off for a vacation and a new year!

1942-1943

The Class of '43 reached its climactic year led by Harold Gales, Elly Woodworth, Hortense Groves, and Florence Schurgin.

Half-pint Berman heads Council toughies, as the second woman ever elected President of the University Student Council.

New physical fitness program for men at Wayne; women to get it next semester.

Men worried about draft swamp Don Palmer & Co.

Tartars finally beat Akron for their first win.

It was at the Homecoming game where Jean Raub reigned as Queen.

Norman Thomas drew huge crowd at a Student Assembly.

Barb Handell took the honors in being chairman of the Wintermarch, and then carried off more honors when elected Miss Wayne U. at the Soph Prom.

Collegian won Goodfellow Drive for the first time in seven years. Council paid with a big party!

Wayne made a bid for Army-Navy College program. Four hundred Army Cadets to come or not to come?

Sylvia Stapleton took the crown in the Wayne Bond Queen contest. $22,167 worth of War Bonds and Stamps sold here at Wayne.

Wayne lost most of its men as 208 E.R.C.'s and all the Air Corp reservists are called.

This was the year of the big Pan issue—charges made that it was "obscene"!

Interiority clamped down on rules as six sororities were put on probation for illegally initiating members.

Wayne women gave their all for the war effort—stockings, make-up, etc.

Langston Hughes paid a visit to Wayne amid picketers, and the auditorium packed to capacity.

Quickly the weeks went by. Senior Skip Day, Swingout, Baccalaureate whisked by, and then the final FINAL exams.

Finally graduation, when worried seniors were glad to get out, but sort of wished they could go back.

THE GRIFFIN

Personalities

- Barbara Berman... half-pint... dark hair... twinkling eyes... second woman president of Student Council in Wayne's history... manages the toughies exceedingly well... a Who's Who... and a sociology major... giggles... member of Gold Key... super-organizer... hates to get up in the morning... chairman of Senior Swingout... with that she bows out.

- Betty Byron... five foot two... eyes of blue... new efficient president of the Intersorority Council... really doing things towards a stronger Council... much to the chagrin of many sororities... but still loved by everyone... an industrious sociology major... possessor of beautiful dimples... one of the Bond Queen candidates... her heart's in the Navy Air Corps... Betty B. will always rank tops!

- Bill David... dark hair... smiling eyes... one of the engineering department's best... if it's mechanical, it interests Bill... has the rare knack of combining engineering and journalism... as evidenced by the fact that he's editor of the Wayne Engineer... if you've read it, you know how good it is... and co-editor of this yearbook... he's really swell!

- Roy Denial... the man who made the third floor library famous... his Collegian "Paragraphs"... that inimitable style that caught something of the very heart of Wayne... worked himself up from the basement to the Collegian masthead... was editor when the E.R.C. called him... still corresponds with Waynites via the Collegian... keeps up his morale and ours with humorous vignettes of Army life... witty... sharp repartee... loyal Collegianite... that's Roy Denial!

- Charles Evans... the Student Council's four-and-a-half-year man... held positions of treasurer, vice-president, and president in successive years on the Council... then, in his final semester, again vice-president... "It's fantastic" the number of offices he held in his final semester... chairman, Mackenzie Union... Directorate... Business Manager of the Engineer... ever-present slide rule... smelly threadbare lab coat... engineer who made good.

Harold Gales ... flaming hair that helped to make the campaign cry "vote for Red Gales" a regular feature of election time ... selected as the outstanding freshman of our class ... then successively elected class president sophomore, junior, senior years ... claims the Army saved him from washing Wayne's spotless floors for the next few years to pay off the class deficit ... agendaless meetings ... an undefeated politician ... that's "Red" Gales!

Ollen Peters ... engineer ... all six feet of him ... proud of the fact that he kept the Mackenzie Union Board of Governors a working organization ... he was president of said organization ... in both Junior and Senior years ... received coveted Who's Who Among Students award in Senior year ... member of Student Council ... an excellent prospect for a progressive Wayne Alumni Association ... he's one man that believes Wayne is well on the way to great things.

Don Swanson ... man of affairs ... so the story goes ... president of the Interfraternity Council ... and also of the Arab Fraternity ... Treasurer of the Class of '43 ... Vice-President of the Mackenzie Union Board of Governors ... in Who's Who in '42 ... he's the face behind the barred window ... the ticket office ... one of our V-7 reservists who left in April ... now serving in Uncle Sam's Navy.

Shirley Williams ... they call her "Shy" because she came out of hiding a little later in the game ... but with a terrific bang ... venerable president of A.W.S. ... member of the Student Council ... vice-president of Gold Key ... assistant "charges d'affaires" of the Women's Building ... frequently found buzzing around the Xi Omicron hive ... Special Ed. major "That They Might See" ... a fine girl ... a great organizer ... a keen wit ... and she works too hard!

Ellen Woodworth ... tall ... luscious red hair ... in everything from Fresh through Senior year ... originator of A.W.S. Clothing Service Shop ... Vice-President of A.W.S. ... fashion show model ... Home Ec. major ... knits ... famous for long white sweater ... a jewelry-maker ... member of Gold Key and Who's Who ... true to Marines ... and last but not least, Vice-President, then Chairman of this year's Senior Class Executive Board.
