COLLECTION DESCRIPTION

SUMMARY OF SERIES

Series I consists of the subject files of Owen Bieber collected during his tenure as president of the UAW from 1983-1995. The subject files include correspondence, minutes and published materials pertaining to topics such as the severing of the Canadian division, the Clinton Administration, NAFTA, trade with Japan, and health care reform. File folders are arranged alphabetically by subject.

This series uses the original folder titles along with alphabetic filing order.

Series II  Public Appearances. 1980-1994 boxes 7-33

Subjects vary including NAFTA and trade issues with Japan and Mexico, a declining auto industry, National Health Care, maquiladora workers, legislation, presidential elections and policies of the Reagan, Bush, and Clinton administrations.

Subseries A: Speeches  boxes 7-20

Subseries A contains drafts of speeches made by Owen Bieber delivered to organizations ranging from local unions to congressional committees. Some speech drafts contain hand written notes and are accompanied by handouts and letters. Some speeches can be found in Subseries B.

Subseries A is arranged using the original chronological filing and folder titles. Folders may contain additional documents and speeches.

Subseries B: Public events  boxes 20-32

Subseries B contains supporting documents for public appearances, predominately correspondence requesting Owen Bieber's presence and coordinating dates to provide testimony, give speeches and make appearances. Speeches included in this subseries are indicated in the title. See Subseries A for speeches.

Subseries B is arranged using the original chronological filing and folder titles. Some folders contain speeches and are indicated on the title.

Subseries C: Interviews and related correspondence box 32, folders 54-59

Subseries C contains transcripts, question and answer, and other materials for articles and radio interviews from 1984-1989. Files also include related correspondence.

Subseries C is arranged in chronological order by year.

Series III contain the subject files of Owen Bieber in his early years with the UAW.
Series IV  Press clips & photo examples. 1994-1994 box 33
Series IV contains press clips and photos. An example set of photographs were photocopied. To see the full set please refer to the Audiovisual Department.

ARRANGEMENT AND DESCRIPTION
The filling methods of both Series I and II were preserved in addition to the use of original folder titles with some clarifications added. An index is available on page 64.

Series V: Office of the President Correspondence
The Presidential Correspondence Series contains letters, clippings, and reports delivered to the UAW Office of the President. The WARN letters in this series document the shift in economic conditions resulting in plant closures and layoffs. The letters of opposition criticize the union’s policies and Owen Bieber’s personal activities. The Car Complaints demonstrate the union’s ability to work on behalf of the consumer. The non-union requests provide evidence of support and opposition within the general public toward the international union. This series contains personal letters, form letters, clippings, propaganda, and opposition letters.

Subseries A: WARN Letters
Letters sent under the Worker Adjustment and Retraining Notification Act of 1989 is documented in this series. This law requires employers to notify, within 60 days, first the local government, followed by either the worker or union representing the worker, of any anticipated plant closings or mass layoffs. These letters demonstrate the shift of labor in the American Auto Industry to outside the US. The majority of letters include lists detailing worker’s job classifications and seniority.

Subseries B: Letters of Opposition
Unsigned letters received by Owen Bieber reflecting opposition toward both his personal behavior and the policies and procedures of the international union. Letters in this collection demonstrate public opposition with the union’s strike actions, political involvement, and contract negotiations. Owen’s work to end Apartheid in South Africa is also criticized within this collection.

Subseries C: Car Complaints
Letters written by union and non-union automobile consumers regarding problems with their union made vehicles. This series provides evidence of the UAW response to manufacturing and engineering problems within the US Auto Industry. These letters demonstrate the desire and ability of the union to assist consumers with their car problems.

Subseries D: Non-Union Requests
Correspondence with researchers, politicians, corporate entities, and individuals of the general public. This collection includes letters of support and opposition from the international and national community. Letters concerning individual political support, product endorsements, and survey requests are included.

Subseries E: Union Requests
Correspondence between the Office of the President, UAW members, and their affiliate unions. Letters discuss contract interpretations and future contract negotiation requests. Letters also request assistance with healthcare, strike funds, and retirement benefits. Letters of support and criticism regarding Owen Bieber’s personal actions and the actions of the International Union are also represented.

Series VI: Committee Memberships
Correspondence, reports, memos, and clippings that Owen Bieber received from the various committees he served on, including UAW/AFL-CIO committees, local Detroit committees, Presidential appointments, and national committees. Owen’s commitment to end apartheid in South Africa is represented through the Presidential appointment to the Advisory Council of South Africa and the Africa Fund. Locally, Owen served on the New Detroit Council, the

Series VII: Chrysler Board of Directors
Correspondence, reports, board minutes, clippings, and UAW internal communications concerning Owen’s time spent on the Board of Directors. In 1984, Owen succeeded former UAW President Douglas Fraser as the second union leader to hold a seat on the Chrysler Board of Directors. This series demonstrates the role he held on the board and the situation at Chrysler following the federal bailout.

Series VIII: International Executive Board
Documents pertaining to the governance of the International Union, including correspondence, reports, and clippings distributed to members of the International Executive Board. Correspondence between Regional Directors and the President’s Office are included.

IEB appeals committee materials (Boxes 100-107) are restricted; researchers’ interested in viewing these boxes must sign a Restricted Use form.

Series IX: Subject Files
Documents related to all areas of interest to Owen Bieber during his tenure as President of the United Auto Workers, including correspondence, reports, published material, and handwritten notes.

- Subseries A: AFL-CIO
  Subject files created by Owen Bieber that document the UAW’s return to the AFL-CIO, as well as, all projects the UAW and AFL-CIO worked on collaboratively.

- Subseries B: General
  General subject files created by Owen Bieber during his tenure as UAW President that reflect his personal and professional interests. Subjects vary from Apartheid to Retired Workers.

Series X: Convention Files
Correspondence, resolutions, reports, and all other documents relating to conventions held by the UAW and the AFL-CIO during Owen Bieber’s tenure as UAW President.

- Subseries A: UAW
  Files relating to the UAW Conventions, including correspondence, invitations, speeches, committee reports, and special events.
