The Sam Fishman Travel Grant Program
2022 Application

The Walter P. Reuther Library, Archives of Labor and Urban Affairs invites applications for travel grants of up to $1,000 as part of the 2022 Sam Fishman Travel Grant Program. The program provides research grant to support faculty, students, independent researchers, and union members to defray travel, lodging, food, and other costs to conduct research in the Reuther Library's extensive labor collections. The award is named in honor of Sam Fishman, a former UAW and Michigan AFL-CIO leader and grants are only given in support of projects relating to labor history.

Recipients are selected through an annual competitive application process for travel to be completed during the subsequent year. As part of their research visits, awardees are invited to speak about their work at an informal event at the Reuther Library, be interviewed for the Podcast Series Tales from the Reuther Library, or submit a proposal for the North American Labor History Conference on the Wayne State University campus. Recipients are required to submit a two-page research report and an expense report within one month of the conclusion of their research visit. Awards may only be used to reimburse receipted expenses. Recipients will be required to complete a federal W-9 form and accept reimbursement in the form of a check.

Deadline for applications for the 2022 program is April 15, 2022 and awardees will be announced by May 1, 2022.
