

THE SELMA BORCHARDT COLLECTION

89 Linear Feet

Processed: March, 1971

Accession No. 357

The papers of Selma Borchardt were deposited with the Archives of Labor History and Urban Affairs in September, 1969 by Louis Camera.

Selma Borchardt was born in Washington, D.C. on December 1, 1895. She died on January 31, 1968. She received a B.S. in Education from Syracuse University in 1919, and an A.B. in 1922. In 1937, she received an M.A. from Catholic University, and later, she completed all the requirements for a Ph.D., except a publication of a dissertation. She also received a law degree from the Washington College of Law in 1933.

After teaching and supervising schools in Montgomery County, Maryland, 1919-1921, Miss Borchardt became the legislative representative and a vice president of the American Federation of Teachers in 1924. She retained these positions until 1935, and in 1942 she regained them and kept them until she retired in 1962. She also served as chairwoman of the International Relations Committee. From 1929-1955, she was secretary of the AFL Education Committee.

In 1927, Miss Borchardt became a director of the World Federation of Education Associations, a world-wide organization established in 1921 to promote peace and good will among educators of all nations. During the twenty-five years of its existence, it sponsored several international education conferences. When the World Federation of Education Associations became defunct in 1946, Miss Borchardt was on the committee for the establishment of its successor, the Institute of World Studies, a non-profit organization which sponsored educational institutes in England, France, Switzerland, Denmark and Holland.

Besides participating in the AFT and the WFEA, Miss Borchardt was a member of the National Youth Administration, 1934-1944, and of the U.S. National Committee on UNESCO, 1946-1952. She was a delegate to the White House Conferences on Children and Youth in 1930, 1940 and 1950, and she was a delegate to the White House Conference on Education, 1955. She was a member of the U.S. Office of Education Wartime Commission, 1941, and when it was dissolved, she was placed on a smaller committee to supervise the operation of the High School Victory Corps, 1941-1943. Miss Borchardt was secretary of the Education Committee of the Washington Central Labor Union, and the director of the Washington Self-Help Exchange, 1936-1941. In 1934, she was admitted to the D.C. bar, and in 1944, she was admitted to the U.S. Supreme Court bar.

This Collection covers the period from 1911-1967. Most of the records cover the period from 1922-1962.

The records of this sub-series pertain to board of directors meetings and conferences. The WFEA did not hold any conferences after 1942, and the minutes of board of directors meetings after 1941 are missing.

The records of this sub-series are divided into two sections - board of directors and conferences. Most of the records of section one pertain to board of directors meetings which were not held during conferences. Also included in this section is a minute book which gives most of the minutes of the board of directors meetings, including those which met during the conferences. Other records pertaining to the board of directors meetings during the conferences are filed in section two of this sub-series. Besides listing the name of the conference, the folders containing records of the board of directors, are labeled "Board of Directors Meetings" and are placed at the beginning of the folders for each conference. The records of section two pertain to conferences and include board of directors meetings, arrangements, meetings of committees, and speeches delivered at the conferences.

Sub-Series 2D, World Peace Through Education-Plan and Proposals 1923-1941
Boxes 59-62

Correspondence, reports, proposals, and resolutions.

To implement the major purpose for which the WFEA was established, Raphael Herman, following the World Conference on Education in 1923, offered a $25,000 prize for a plan to develop a spirit of good will among nations. David Starr Jordan prepared the plan which was adopted. He recommended that the WFEA make studies of matters pertinent to world amity through the operation of committees on education for peace which would make reports at the conferences of the WFEA. The records of this sub-series pertain to the peace plans of the Federation. They are arranged alphabetically. Additional material on this subject may be found in 2C, Conferences.

Sub-Series 4B, National Office and Executive Council, 1916-1962
Boxes 87-93

Correspondence, circular letters, constitutions, results of conventions, ballots, financial statements, reports, minutes and proceedings.

Much of the material in this sub-series consists of official reports to and from the president. These records are important national office records which were mimeographed and sent to Selma Borchardt and other officers. Since the national office was decentralized and coordinated by the secretary-treasurer in Chicago, much of the real business was done in Washington.

It is important to note that there are many letters from the national office in sub-series 4A and sub-series 4G. The records of sub-series.4B are arranged chronologically.

Washington Teachers Union and Washington Public Schools, 1916-1965
Boxes 132-138

Minutes, reports, correspondence, bulletins, membership lists, financial records, testimony, constitutions, bills and drafts of bills, notes, newspaper clippings and published material.

The records of this sub-series are divided into two major sections - Washington Trade Union College and Washington Teachers Union. The Washington Trade Union College was established in 1919 by the trade unions of Washington D.C. The records of the Washington Trade Union College in this collection were created by Mary Dent who was secretary-treasurer of the College. They cover the period from 1919-1924 and are arranged chronologically. There are also four folders on workers education, 1926-1950 in sub-series 4L.

The Washington Teachers Union was established in 1916 with the creation of four local unions affiliated with the American Federation of Teachers - Local 8 for white high school teachers, Local 16 for white elementary teachers, Local 27 for black teachers, and Local 98 for white principals. In 1925, Local 16 went out of existence when it merged with Local 8. In 1953, Locals 8 and 27 merged to become Local 6. There are no records in this collection pertaining to Local 98 and there is only one folder of records pertaining to Local 27. The records of this section are divided into four categories (1) Locals 8 and 16, 1916-1924 (2) Local 8, 1925-1941 (3) Local 6, 1953-1965 and (4) legislation pertaining to the Washington Public Schools. The first three categories are arranged chronologically. The last category is arranged alphabetically. The records of the second category reflect the administration of Mary Dent who was elected president of Local 8 in 1926.

Index to Correspondents

The following index includes some (not all) of the correspondents in this collection. Not every letter of the persons listed is necessarily noted. Selma Borchardt, who because of her position is responsible for a preponderant amount of the correspondence, is omitted from this index. Some of the correspondence consists of copies of letters sent to third parties—persons other than Miss Borchardt. Such letters are indexed, but at all times the names listed refer to the persons who wrote the letters. Many of the letters indexed are mimeographed or are important form letters which were mailed to Miss Borchardt from other offices of the American Federation of Teachers. Since the national office was decentralized and coordinated by the Secretary-Treasurer in Chicago and much of the real business was transacted in Washington, Miss Borchardt received many such letters. Since many of the letters indexed do not contain actual handwritten signatures, some may be copies or some may be drafts written by Miss Borchardt for the signature of the person listed in the index.

The index is arranged alphabetically by surnames of correspondents. Because this collection covers such a long time period (1922-1962), the dates (year only) of the letters appear in the index. The first number signifies the box number. The number after the colon indicates the folder in which the letters are located. In cases where there are preponderant amounts of correspondence in several folders which list the name of persons indexed, the box is listed after the title of his position. For example J. W. Crabtree was Membership Secretary of the World Federation of Teachers Associations, and many of his letters are in box 32 in folders labeled Crabreee, J. W. and in box 38 in folders labeled Monroe-Crabtree. In such cases these box numbers appear in the index directly after the title of his position. In cases where there are letters from persons indexed in three or more consecutive folders which are listed by date or some other title, the word "to" is inserted between the first and last folder entries in the index. For example, there are letters written by Mr. Crabtree in box 35 in folders 14, 15, 16, 17, 18, 19 and 20. This fact is listed in the index as 35:14 to 35:20.
