(Predominantly, 1947)

1 Folder

Accession Number 456
L.C. Number MS

The papers of Truda Weil were placed in the Archives of Labor and Urban Affairs in March of 1971 by Frances H. Kohan and were opened for research in March of 1989.

Truda Weil was Executive Secretary of the original Teacher's Union of New York City from 1923 to 1928 and served in the same capacity to the New York Teacher's Guild from 1935 to 1936. Subsequently, she became confidential secretary to a member of the New York City Board of Education. Ms. Weil died in February of 1971.

The papers of Truda Weil consist primarily of correspondence and drafts of speeches relating to the Henry Richardson Linville Memorial Lecture given in New York City in June of 1947, plus several items relating to the Henry R. Linville Award for 1959. Included in the correspondence are six letters from John Dewey to Truda Weil. Henry R. Linville was elected President of the Teachers' Union of New York City in 1916 and served as President and Executive Director until 1935. He also served as President of the American Federation of Teachers from 1931 to 1934.

Other material relating to Henry R. Linville will be found in the Henry Richardson Linville and the Joseph Jablonawer collections in the Archives of Labor and Urban Affairs.
