

THE GLENN R. BETTS COLLECTION

Papers, 1962-1975
(Predominantly, 1974)

½ linear feet

Accession Number 648 L.C.
Number MS

The papers of Glenn R. Betts were placed in the Archives of Labor and Urban Affairs between May, 1974 and March, 1975 and were opened for research in February, 1983.

Glenn R. Betts was a member of UAW Cadillac-Local 22 and served as chairman of its Community Services Committee. He also was a registrant at the Michigan United Labor Community Services ninth annual meeting, May 12-17, 1974 at Black Lake, Michigan. The papers reflect the various concerns and interests of Local 22's Community Services Committee and the agenda of the 1974 school at Black Lake. Entitled, "Citizens Seeking Answers," the 1974 conference dealt some major social problems and their impact upon union members.

Important subjects covered in the collection are:

Alcoholism and drug abuse
Energy
Crisis
Health & educational services
Services for the handicapped
Services for the unemployed

Contents 1

manuscript box

Series I, Michigan United Labor Community Services School, (MULCSS), ninth annual meeting, May, 1974, Box 1:1-9: Brochures, pamphlets, and, speeches relating to the agenda of the ninth annual meeting of the MULCSS.

Series II, UAW Local 22, Community Services Committee, 1962-1975, Box 1:10: Brochures, correspondence, and other materials relating to the union's activities and services to its members in areas such as health, education, recreation, financial assistance, and unemployment.

Non-manuscript material

Some union periodicals and pamphlets on community services for union members received with this collection are available in the Archives Library. Several photographs relating to Local 22s blood donation campaign have been placed in the Archives Audio Visual Collection.

Series I Michigan United
Labor Community Services School (MULCSS) Ninth Annual Meeting,
May 12-17, 1974

Box 1

Brochures, pamphlets, speeches, relating to the theme "Citizens Seeking Answers," of the ninth annual meeting of the MULCSS. The sessions dealt primarily with the impact of social issues and problems upon union members. Topics comprising the week-long agenda included unemployment, alcoholism and drug abuse, union services for the handicapped, health and the energy crisis. Included in this series are drafts of speeches given by Michigan Attorney General Frank Kelly and UAW President Leonard Woodcock.

Box 1

1. Agency board representative
2. Agenda, programs, registrations
3. Alcoholism, drug abuse
4. Crime
5. Energy Crisis
6. National blood program
7. Services to the handicapped
8. Services to the unemployed
9. Summaries of sessions; newsletters, speeches

Series II

UAW Local 22, Community Services Committee, 1962-1974

Box 1

Brochures, correspondence, and leaflets relating to the Local's services to its membership in health, education, recreation, financial aids and unemployment. A few of the papers are from the UAW's Community Services Office on similar issues.

Box 2

10. Betts, Glen R; Correspondence, records, Dec 1972-Dec 1974
11. UAW Community Services Dept; Brochures, pamphlets
12. ; Conference announcements, Sep 1970,
Mar 1974
13. UAW Local 22; Financial reports, 1974
14. ; membership rosters, election documents, 1974-75
15. ; Community Services Committee, Alcohol, drug abuse
programs, 1969, 1972, 1974
16. ; Blood bank program, 1962, 1965-67, 1969-74
17. ; Education programs, 1974-75
18. ; Health programs, 1973-74
19. ; Recreational programs, 1974

- 20. UAW Local 22; United Foundation program
- 21. ; C.S.C.; Unemployment sub-committee; Announcements, flyers, 1974-75
- 22. ; President's Office; Announcements, corres., 1969-70, 1974-75
- 23. ; Vice-President's Office; Announcements, 1974-75
- 24. United Farm Workers; Flyers, memorandum, 1974