

THE LEO FENSTER COLLECTION

Papers, 1943-1977
(Predominantly 1945-1967)

6.5 Linear feet

Accession Number 703
L.C. Number

The papers of Leo Fenster were placed in the Archives of Labor and Urban Affairs in May of 1979 by Mr. Fenster and were opened for research in March of 1980.

Leo Fenster was born in New York City on August 12, 1910. He was an active member of UAW Local 45 from the 1940s through the 1960s at the General Motors Fisher Body plant in Cleveland, Ohio, where he was classified as a senior clerk but was almost always a full-time UAW representative. Mr. Fenster held office in the shop committee and Zone committee, was secretary and board member of Local 45, and worked with insurance, pension and supplemental unemployment benefits claims and procedures. He edited Local 45's publication The Eye-Opener for 25 years, and was secretary of the Cleveland District Auto Council for more than 30 years. Mr. Fenster received awards from the International Labor Press Association, including a 1st prize for best editorial, and he also provided articles for The Nation and authored numerous pamphlets. He was the editor of Wyndham Mortimer's autobiography as well.

Mr. Fenster's papers document the functions of the organizations of which he was a member, his activities as a writer and his interest in social reform and community activities.

Important subjects covered in the collection are:

The Cleveland District Auto Council, 1946-1975

The Community Action Program Council

Early Retirement

General Motors Subcouncils

Grievances Labor Conventions

Non-manuscript material

Approximately 50 photographs, mostly relating to Local 45, and two taped debates between Mr. Fenster and Walter Reuther have been placed in the Archives' Audio Visual Collections, along with two "30-40-60" bumper stickers, a United Transportation Union press pack which includes photographs, and "cartoons" of a pamphlet. Copies of constitutions and agreements, numerous pamphlets, and newspapers and publications relating to labor and labor unions have been placed in the Archives Library, including copies of Local 45's publication The Eye-Opener dated from 1943 to 1976. A list of these materials has been placed in the case file.

Series I
 United Auto Workers material, 1946-1977
 Boxes 1-6

Printed and manuscript material collected by Mr. Fenster during his years as a UAW member, primarily official printed material (correspondence, contract proposals and contract settlements) from the UAW and related organizations, such as the American Federation of Labor, the Congress of Industrial Organizations, the Community Action Program (CAP) Council and various locals and regions. The files are arranged alphabetically by topic or type of material except for "Conferences and Conventions" folders, which are arranged chronologically. Material from locals is arranged by local number, and local agreements are listed by plant name. Miscellaneous and unidentified material is placed at the end of each subject heading and also at the end of the series.

Series II
 UAW Local 45, 1943-1977
 Boxes 6-7

Correspondence, minutes, notes and printed material documenting official activities and concerns of Local 45, including elections, negotiations, contract demands and unemployment. Local 45 actively promoted the issue of early retirement during the 1961 and 1964 contract negotiations, and this is reflected in the correspondence for these years. For more information of Local 45's support of early retirement, see also Series IV, folders 8-28 through 8-30, for a manuscript by Mr. Fenster on the subject. For photocopies of most of the photographs pertaining to Local 45 that have been placed in the Audio Visual collection, see Series V. The photocopies have been annotated by Mr. Fenster. The files in this series are arranged alphabetically by topic or type of material. Copies of Local 45's official publication The Eye-Opener dated from 1943 to 1976 have been placed in the archives Library.

Series IV
 Personal Files of Leo Fenster, 1946-1976
 Boxes 8-9

Primarily correspondence, manuscripts and notes written by Mr. Fenster, and also related clippings and reference material and a transcript of Mr. Fenster's testimony before the Ohio Un-American Activities Commission in 1953. The correspondence reflects Mr. Fenster's involvement in a wide range of activities including labor issues, politics and social reform. The subjects of the manuscripts are primarily labor-related, and the manuscript on early retirement (folders 8-28 through 8-30) describes Local 45's role in promoting the 30-40-60 plan during contract negotiations in 1961 and 1964. Drafts of unpublished articles and essays written by Mr. Fenster may not be copied during his lifetime. The files are arranged alphabetically by topic or type of material. Manuscripts are arranged alphabetically by title, subject, or form (draft, proof, etc.). Photocopies of photographs documenting some of Mr. Fenster's interests and activities and annotated by him can be found in Series V.

Series V
 General Subjects and Photographs, 1944-1977
 Boxes 9-11

Primarily printed material, bills, flyers, clippings and some correspondence collected by Mr. Fenster which reflect his interest in community, state and general labor activities. Photocopies, annotated by Mr. Fenster, of most of the photographs that have been placed in the Audio Visual collection. Subjects covered include civil rights, the peace movement of the 1960s and early 1970s, city, state and national politics, tax reform, and unemployment. Material in this series, on labor unions and labor activities, concerns organizations other than the UAW, except for the newspaper clippings, some of which contain information on the UAW as well. The files are arranged alphabetically by topic or type of material except for "Conferences and Conventions" folders, which are arranged chronologically.
