Scope and Content

The papers in this collection relate to the work conducted by Fred L. Lodge, International Representative from UAW Region 6, amalgamated local 887. Half of the collection covers Lodge's position as a representative including correspondence, grievances, negotiations, a scab report, and publications related to region 6 and local 887. In the 1960's Lodge was assigned to conduct research on right wing politics, extremist groups, and anti-unionism as part of a special committee. The second half of this collection features Lodge's findings on these various topics which include the John Birch Society, labor unions and the right wing, and extremist groups. Series Description: Series 1: UAW Region 6, 1948-1980, correspondence, negotiations, agreements, and publications from UAW region 6 and local 887. In order to make material available, social security numbers have been redacted from box 1 folders 11, 13, and 14. Series 2: Political Research, 1960-1971, publications, newspapers, and research related to right wing politics, extremist groups, and anti-unionism.

Series 1: UAW Region 6, 1948-1980 Series 2: Political Research, 1960-1971
