Accession Number 206

The papers of Local 240 were deposited with the Labor History Archives in Nov. 1966 by Dan Cassey.

Local 240 is an amalgamated UAW-CIO local representing salaried and office employees in Windsor, Ontario. This local was certified on March 17, 1944, as the collective bargaining agent for certain salaried and office employees employed by Ford Motor Company of Canada in its Windsor offices. The first collective bargaining agreement with Ford was signed in 1946.

The Local 240 Collection covers the period from 1938 to 1955.

Important subjects are:

Briefs and submissions by Ford Motor Co. of Canada and Local 240 to the Board of Conciliation, 1952, 1954.

Minutes of A. T. E. Windsor Branch and later Local 228 (UOPWA), 1938-1949;
Executive Board and membership meeting minutes, 1943-1948.
