The National Farm Workers Association (NFWA) was founded in 1962. In 1966 it affiliated with the Agricultural Workers Organizing Committee to form the United Farm Workers Organizing Committee (UFWOC). In 1973 the UFWOC became the United Farm Workers, AFL-CIO. Cesar Chavez led the Farm Workers from the NFWA's founding until his death in 1993.

The Administration Department files reflect the wide range of people and groups with whom the UFW corresponded. In addition, the work of the union itself is represented, including boycott files from around the United States, Canada, and Europe. There are files from the union's newspaper El Malcriado, and papers showing the work of the union print shop El Taller Grafico. Some of the files of California Assemblyman Art Torres are also in this collection.

This collection is especially rich in the correspondence, agreements, negotiations, and grievances that the UFW had with the southern California grape growers in the early 1970s.

Important subjects in the collection:

Boycotts	Health / Pesticides
Contracts	Le Roy Chatfield
Grievances	Art Torres

Important correspondents in the collection:

Cesar Chavez	Edward Kennedy
Archbishop Hugh Donohoe	Bill Kircher (AFL-CIO)
Dolores Huerta	Pete Seeger

Non-Manuscript Material:

A number of photographs, bumper stickers, buttons, and cloth goods have been placed in the Archives Audio-Visual Collection. In addition, copies of El Malcriado have been placed in the Archives library.

PLEASE NOTE: Folders are computer-arranged alphabetically in this finding aid, but may actually be dispersed throughout several boxes in the collection. Note carefully the box number for each folder heading
