UAW VICE PRESIDENT'S OFFICE
KEN BANNON COLLECTION

Papers, 1940-1980

39 Linear feet

Accession Number 935
LC Number MS

The papers of Ken Bannon were placed in the Archives of Labor and Urban Affairs in 1979 and 1980 and were opened for research in March of 1983.

Ken Bannon was born in Scranton, Pennsylvania on June 27, 1914. His family moved to Pittston, Pennsylvania in 1929, and Bannon graduated from Pittston High School with honors in 1933. While in Pittston, Bannon worked in the coal mines and was a member of the United Mine Workers. He married Alice McHale in 1935.

Bannon came to Detroit in 1936, and in November of that year, he became an employee at the River Rouge plant of the Ford Motor Company. In 1937 he joined the UAW and was active in the initial organizing drive at Ford which ended in the signing of the first UAW-Ford agreement in June 1941. Bannon served as steward, committeeman and unit bargaining committee member for UAW Local 600 in the Rouge plant until he was transferred to the Ford Highland Park plant in 1943. During World War II, Bannon was inducted into the Navy and served for 16 months from 1943 to 1945. Following an honorable discharge, he returned to the Highland Park plant and was elected chairman of UAW Local 400's bargaining committee and in 1946 he was elected president of the Local.

In 1947, Bannon was appointed UAW National Ford Director by president Walter Reuther. As Director he led all negotiations with Ford until his retirement from the UAW in 1980. In the 1960's, in addition to his work with Ford, Bannon also served as the chief negotiator with Bendix and Borg-Warner; and at various times he was the director of the Midland-Ross, Federal Mogul, Walker, McQuay-Norris, Modine, Ex-Cell-0, and Houdaille intra-corporation councils. He was named Director of the UAW Aerospace Department in 1970. Bannon was elected to the UAW International Executive Board as an at-large member in 1962 and served in that capacity until he was elected as a UAW vice president in 1970.

In addition to his numerous positions within the UAW, Bannon was a delegate to the Ford section of the International Metalworkers Federation's World Automotive Council. He served on the Board of Directors of the Community Health Association from 1964 until 1970 and was president of the CHA Board from 1970-1972, he was a member of the Metropolitan Hospital Board of Directors from 1972-1975, and was Board president from 1975 until 1980, and he was a Consumer/Labor Representative on the Blue Cross/Blue Shield Board of Directors throughout the 1970's. Also, Bannon served on the Wayne County Foster Children's Committee and the Advisory Council of Oakland Community College, and he was on the Board of Directors of the Detroit United Foundation and the Boy Scouts of America.

The papers of Ken Bannon reflect his activities as Director of the UAW Ford Department and union Vice President, and to a lesser extent his work on the IMF Automotive Council, and for various health and hospital organizations.

Contents

77 ½ manuscript boxes
1 oversize box

Series I, Ford Negotiations, 1955-1976; Boxes 1-31:

Correspondence, reports, notes, newspaper clippings, and other material relating to the contract negotiations between Ford and the UAW, which were headed by Bannon as Director of the UAW Ford Department. Some of the subjects covered are pension and supplemental unemployment benefit plans, cost-of-living, production standards, and the skilled trades.

Series II, National Ford Council and Subcouncil, 1955-1979; Boxes 32-40:

Minutes, reports, resolutions, and other items generated at National Ford Council, Subcouncil and other related meetings. The Council and Subcouncils coordinated organizational activities, and made recommendations on the handling of grievances and negotiations between Ford and the UAW. Among the important subjects in this series are skilled trades controversies and UAW political activities.

Series III, National Ford Department, 1940-1975; Boxes 40-47:

Correspondence, reports, leaflets, and notes concerning events of special interest or importance to the UAW Ford Department. This includes the organizing drive at Ford in the early 1940's, UAW strikes at Ford plants, Ford plant closings, and unemployment compensation eligibility.

Series IV, Ford Motor Company, 1947-1976; Boxes 48-51:

Correspondence, press releases, speeches, charts, newspaper clippings, and other reference material relating to the structure, finances, personnel and practices of Ford Company. Some subjects covered are labor-management relations, automation, international political affairs, and the quality of work life.

Series V, UAW Conventions and Conferences, 1962-1977; Boxes 51-54:

Correspondence, officers' reports, leaflets, speech notes, and other items collected at UAW conventions and conferences at which Bannon was a frequent participant and speaker. Important areas covered in this series are elections of UAW leadership, the union's educational and recreational programs, and UAW strike activities and political action.

Series VI, Speech Notes and Background Material, 1957-1979; Boxes 54-59:

Correspondence, reports, pamphlets, and other items used by Bannon as background material for speeches he gave at both UAW and community related events. Also included in this series are invitations to the events and texts of many of the speeches. Important subjects covered are automation, imports and exports in the automobile industry, the recession of the early 1970' s, and UAW political activities.

Series VII, Subject Reference, Files, 1944-1978; Boxes 59-66:

Correspondence, notes, reports, leaflets, and other material which served as a subject reference file for Bannon and the UAW Ford Department. Among the topics included in this series are automation, the skilled trades, production standards, other unions, and various left-wing organizations.

Series VIII, Newspaper Clippings, 1947-1977; Boxes 66-67:

Newspaper clippings collected by Barman concerning some major events in the history of the UAW including the rise of Walter Reuther to the UAW Presidency, the attempted assassination of Victor and Walter Reuther, Ford recognition of the UAW, and anti-communist investigations of UAW Local 600. Also included is a file of biographical material on Bannon.

Series IX, International Metalworkers' Federation, 1956-1976; Boxes 68-69:

Correspondence, reports, notes, newsletters, and other material collected by Bannon while he served as UAW representative and delegate to the Ford section of the IMF. As representative, Bannon attended IMF conferences and traveled extensively to foreign countries to view the automobile industry and conditions of the workers in those countries. Subjects of interest in this series include international labor solidarity, labor-management relations, and automobile production and competition in Europe and Japan.

Series X, Hospital and Health Insurance Organizaitons, 1958-1980; Boxes 69-79:

Subseries A: Community Health Association, 1958-1980, Boxes 69-73:

Correspondence, reports, minutes, and other material relating to the structure and functioning of the Community Health Association, a health insurance organization which provided service to many UAW members. Bannon served on the Board of Director of the CHA from 1964 until 1972. Included in this series is information on the Association's relationship with Blue Cross/Blue Shield, and efforts to establish prepaid insurance plans for various workers in Detroit.

Subseries B: Metropolitan Hospital, 1967-1980, Boxes 73-78:

Correspondence, financial statements, notes and other items collected or created by Bannon while he was a member of the Metropolitan Hospital Board of Directors from 1972 until 1980. This series contains information on the organization and administration of Metropolitan Hospital, and on the labor disputes between the Hospital and Local 42, OPEIU.

Subseries C: Blue Cross/Blue Shield, 1970-1980, Boxes 78-79:

Correspondence, reports, minutes, and newspaper clippings collected by Bannon while he was a Consumer/Labor representative on the Blue Cross/Blue Shield Board of Directors from 1970 until 1980. This series contains information on the increasing cost of medical insurance and cost containment, consumer protection in the health insurance field, and the restructuring of Blue Cross/Blue Shield in the late 1970's.

Non-manuscript material

Approximately one-half linear foot of photographs relating to UAW Conventions, UAW-Ford collective bargaining teams, the strike by UAW Local 588 in 1963, and Ken Bannon and also records and tapes of UAW Collective bargaining programs have been placed in the Archives Audio-Visual Collections. Approximately three linear feet of UAW and Ford Motor Company pamphlets, and UAW newspapers received with this collection are available in the Archives Library.

Series I
Ford Negotiations, 1955-1976
Boxes 1-31

Correspondence, reports, notes, memoranda, newsletters, newspaper clippings, and other material relating to contract negotiations between Ford Motor Co. and the UAW. As Director of the UAW National Ford Department from 1947-1980, Bannon headed all UAW national negotiations with Ford. During these years, the UAW and Ford developed the first pension plan and the first supplemental unemployment benefit plan in the automobile industry. Other subjects covered in this series are cost-of-living, foremen working, grievance procedures, production standards, skilled trades, and the UAW negotiations with the other automobile manufacturers. All negotiations relate to the Ford Motor Co. except those specifically labeled as relating to other firms. The files for the years 1955-1970 mainly concern negotiations with Ford before the contract ratification and are arranged chronologically and then alphabetically by subject or type of material. The files for 1973 and 1976 deal with the skilled trades controversies after contract ratification and are arranged chronologically. Occasionally files include material from previous years' negotiations.

Series II
National Ford Council and Subcouncils, 1955-1979
Boxes 32-40

Minutes, reports, correspondence, resolutions, delegate credentials, and other material from National Ford Council, Subcouncil and other related meetings. Material relating to NFC expenses is placed at the end of the series. The National Ford Council is made up of delegates elected by local unions in Ford plants. The Council meets at least once a year to coordinate the collective bargaining demands of the locals and to formulate policies for dealing with the Ford Motor Co. There are seven Ford Subcouncils organized on the basis of common interests of the members involved.(i.e. assembly plants, stamping plants, skilled trades, etc.)

The Subcouncils assist in coordinating organizational activities and make recommendations on the handling of grievances and negotiations. Bannon, as head of the Ford Department, oversaw the work of the Council and Subcouncils. Some of the subjects included in this series are UAW negotiations with Ford, controversies with the skilled trades, and the union's political activities. Boxes 32-35 contain bound proceedings arranged chronologically; the files for Boxes 36-40 are arranged chronologically and then alphabetically by type of material.

Series III
National Ford Department, 1940-1975
Boxes 40-47

Correspondence, reports, leaflets, minutes, notes, appointment books, and other material concerning events of special interest or importance to the UAW Ford Department. This includes the Ford organizing drive in the early 1940s, UAW strikes at Ford plants--both authorized and unauthorized --and Ford plant closings. Other subjects of interest in this series are factionalism and anti-administration feelings in UAW-Ford locals, production standards, unemployment compensation eligibility, and work stoppages in the 1950s and 1960s. Although most of the files were collected by Bannon as head of the UAW Ford Department, a few predate his directorship. The files in Boxes 40-46 are arranged chronologically and then alphabetically by type of material; Box 47 contains the appointment books of Bannon as Ford Department Director, 1947-1975.

Series IV
Ford Motor Company, 1947-1976
Boxes 48-51

Correspondence, company press releases and speeches, charts, newspaper clippings, and other material relating to the structure, finance, personnel, policies and practices of the Ford Motor Company. These files served as reference material for Bannon and the UAW Ford Department. Some of the important subjects covered in this series are labor-management relations, automation and foreign competition in the automobile industry, automobile safety, international political affairs, the quality of work life, and Ford plants overseas. This series is arranged alphabetically by subject or by type of material.

UAW Conventions and Conferences, 1962-1977
Boxes 51-54

Correspondence, officers' and committee reports, resolutions, leaflets, speech notes and other material from UAW special and constitutional conventions and conferences. As Director of the Ford Department, IEB Member-at-Large, and Vice President, Bannon frequently prepared reports, served on committees, and spoke at these events. Some of the subjects covered in this series are changes in the UAW constitution, elections of UAW national leadership, the union's educational, recreational, women's and youth programs, and strikes and UAW political action. The files are arranged chronologically and then alphabetically by subject or type of material.

Series VI
Speech Notes and Background Material, 1957-1979
Boxes 54-59

Correspondence, reports, pamphlets, newspaper clippings, and other items used by Bannon as background material for speeches he gave for the UAW and at labor, community and social events. Some subjects of special interest are national health insurance, automation, automobile imports and exports, the recession of the early 1970s, UAW pension and retirement programs, the union's political activities, and labor-management relations. The files for boxes 54-58 are arranged chronologically, with correspondence and invitations first, followed by the speech drafts, and then the background material. General background material on a number of subjects is arranged alphabetically and located at the end of this series.

Series IX
International Metalworkers' Federation, 1956-1976
Boxes 68-69

Correspondence, reports, notes, newsletters, and other material collected by Bannon while he served as UAW representative and delegate to the Ford section of the IMF. The IMF is an international association of trade and industrial unions in the metal industries in the United States, Western Europe and Japan. As UAW representative, Bannon attended IMF conferences held throughout the world and traveled extensively to foreign countries, particularly those of western Europe, to view the automobile industry and working conditions in those countries. Subjects of interest in this series are international labor solidarity, labor-management relations in overseas automobile plants, and automobile production and competition in Europe and Japan. The files are arranged chronologically and then alphabetically by type of material.

Series X
Hospitals and Health Insurance Organizations, 1958-1980
Boxes 69-79

Files relating to Bannon's activities on the Board of Directors of Metropolitan Hospital and health insurance organizations.

This series is divided into the following three subseries:

Subseries A: Community Health Association, 1958-1980, Boxes 69-73

Correspondence, memoranda, reports, minutes, and other material relating to the structure and functioning of the Community Health Association, a prepaid health insurance organization, founded in 1958, which provided services to many UAW members. Bannon served on the Board of Directors of the CHA from 1964 until 1970 and as the Board's president from 1970 until 1972. Included in this series is information on the founding, membership, and liquidation of the CHA, the Association's relationship to Blue Cross/Blue Shield, and the CHA's efforts to establish prepaid insurance plans for various workers in Detroit. The files are arranged alphabetically by subject to by type of material.

Subseries B: Metropolitan Hospital, 1967-1980, Boxes 73-78

Correspondence, financial statements, reports, notes, newspaper clippings and other items collected or created by Bannon while he was a member of the Metropolitan Hospital Board of Directors, from 1972 until 1975, and president of the Board from 1975 until 1980. In addition to material on the organization and administration of Metropolitan Hospital, this series contains information on the labor disputes between the Hospital and Local 42, OPEIU. The series is arranged alphabetically by subject or by type of material.

Subseries C: Blue Cross/Blue Shield, 1970-1980, Boxes 78-79

Correspondence, reports, minutes, and newspaper clippings collected by Bannon while he was a Consumer/Labor representative on the Blue Cross/Blue Shield Board of Directors from 1970 until 1980. This series contains information on the increasing cost of medical insurance and disputes between the HAW and Blue Cross/Blue Shield on cost containment, consumer protection in the health insurance field, and the restructuring of Blue Cross/Blue Shield in the late 1970's. The files are arranged alphabetically by subject or by type of material.
