

THE LILY LAMPINEN COLLECTION

Papers, 1960-1975
(Predominantly, 1960-1969)

.5 linear feet

Accession Number 836
L.C. Number MS

The papers of Lily Lampinen were placed in the Archives of Labor and Urban Affairs in July of 1977 by Ms. Lampinen and opened for research in December of 1984.

The collection focuses on the important social and political issues of the decade of the 1960s, primarily civil rights for minorities and, to a lesser extent, the anti-war movement. Included are materials from organizations active both locally and throughout the United States. The increasing political power of blacks is documented in the Detroit Federation of Teachers and the Black Panther Party.

The papers of Ms. Lampinen reflect her personal interest in a variety of contemporary issues.

Important subjects covered in the collection are:

Civil Rights Political Radicalism

Among the important correspondents are:

Grace Chin Lee Martin Glaberman An index to subjects and correspondents will be found on p.4
