COLLECTION
47 Manuscript boxes

Processed: 1970

Accession Number 129

The papers comprising the Displaced Persons Collection were deposited with the Labor History Archives in January, 1965 by Florence Cassidy, Secretary of the Michigan Commission on Displaced Persons and Refugees.

After the passage of the Displaced Persons Act, the Michigan Commission on Displaced Persons was established in 1949 by Executive Order of Gov. G. Mennen Williams. Prior to the passage of this Act in 1948, various volunteer agencies in Michigan had been active in resettling regular quota immigrants; and the Michigan Committee on Displaced Persons (an inter-organizational committee) had campaigned for the passage of legislation to admit displaced persons outside of the quota.

The Commission worked jointly with Michigan sponsors, with volunteer agencies, and with the Federal and State governments in resettling displaced persons and refugees. Its main functions were those of coordination and central information in such areas as housing, transportation, employment, legislation, and education. It also investigated the responsibility of individuals and organizations which were sponsoring displaced persons.

The name of the Commission was changed to the Michigan Commission on Displaced Persons and Refugees after the passage of the Refugee Relief Act in 1953. In 1960 the Commission recommended to Gov. John B. Swainson that he establish a Michigan Commission on Refugees which would serve on a stand-by basis.

The Displaced Persons Collection covers the period from 1937 to 1965.

Important subjects are: Detroit Committee on Refugees
Federal Displaced Persons Commission
International Refugees Organization
Latvian, Lithuanian, Ukrainian, Hungarian,
