United Community Services of Metropolitan Detroit is a planning organization for social welfare and health care services. The UCS Research Department set up the Studies and Reports Collection in 1975 as a reference library for staffers and other researchers as well as to document the history of UCS's service to the community.

The collection consists of studies and reports prepared by United Community Services staff and committees on a variety of issues and programs conducted under UCS auspices as well as those prepared by outside experts and organizations working in the field of social welfare.

Important subjects in the collection:

Aged problems
AIDS and HIV
Child neglect and protective services for children
Crime and delinquency
Demographic data
Ethnic/racial communities in metropolitan Detroit
Family services
Health care for the medically indigent
Local, state, and federal welfare programs
Poverty and low income
Recreation
Settlements and community centers
Social welfare planning and agency administration
Social workers
Substance abuse
Teen pregnancy
Unemployment
