Index to Subjects and Correspondence

Subjects and correspondents are filed together alphabetically. Correspondents are indicated by an asterisk. Entries generally consist of subject and date(s) within parenthesis followed by a box and folder number. Box and folder numbers are separated by a colon. A semicolon separates entries for each subject. Example: Students (grades 67,68), 102:1; (tuition 54), 111:22,23;

Note: Every document has not been indexed. The researcher should also consult appropriate folder headings within the finding aid.
