Abstract

The Wayne State University Activities Committee Records contains the records of the Secretary of the University Activities Committee during the tenure of Doris R. Boldt. John Fraser was the Chair of the University Activities Committee at this time.

These records contain the minute books from 1981-1987 and four special events books with information pertaining to parties sponsored by the University Activities Committee. These special events books contain material on special cruises, meals prepared for the parties, some photographs, and information on the budget, decorations, publicity, and prizes.

Arrangement

Minute books and events books are arranged chronologically.
