FOOTBALL

The 1945 season opened with the Wayne squad traveling down to Delaware, Ohio, where they played the "Fighting Bishops" of Ohio Wesleyan.

The two teams played on even terms for over forty minutes. Then with the score tied at 6-6 the Bishops exploded into action and pushed three more scores across in less than 20 minutes to win by a comfortable 27 to 6 score.

The following week the Central Michigan Chippewas, led by fullback Don McArthur, rang up a 26 to 0 victory over the Tartars.

A highly touted Michigan State Squad was held scoreless for 20 minutes by the Tartars but went on to win 27 to 7 after a hard fought game.

Especially outstanding in this game was the play of guards Dick Ashcom and Jack Cotton. Both men spent the greater part of the afternoon breaking up Spartan plays before they got started.

Wayne broke in the victory column the next week with a hard fought 7 to 6 victory over the Albion Britons. Albion led all the way through the game until the final four minutes when fullback John Newman broke away for a 40 yard run down the sidelines and a score. Nick Cherup kicked the point to win.

FOOTBALL

The game against Hillsdale gave everyone on the Tartar squad a chance to see action. The Wayne team scored in every period as they rolled over the "Dales" 38 to 0.

The game marked the first time since a previous game with Hillsdale in 1937 that the Tartars had rolled up such a large margin of victory. Wayne capitalized on every Hillsdale error, in addition to presenting a flawless passing and running attack.

Michigan Normal came to Detroit the next week riding on the crest of a five game winning streak. The Hurons scored two quick touchdowns in the first half on a run back of a Wayne punt and an interception of quarterback Ray Horal's pass.

In the hole by two touchdowns the Tartars scored twice in the second half but missed one of their conversions giving the Hurons a final one point margin of victory with a 14 to 13 win.

Again the next week, the two teams met, this time on the Ypsilanti home field. This game ended in a scoreless tie with each team losing several scoring chances during the game. Wayne stopped Normal one time on the one foot line.

Elected honorary captain for the year and also most valuable player, was fleet halfback Nick Cherup. It was Cherup who scored Wayne's lone touchdown against State and who also kicked the extra point that won the Albion game for Wayne.

At the same time fullback John Newman was elected to head the 1946 squad as captain. Newman, playing his first year as a regular, scored the tying touchdown against Albion and was also a big factor in most of the other Wayne games of the year.

One of the reasons for the success of the Wayne passing attack in the U of D game was the passing arm of quarterback Bob Mistele. Another quarterback who played some fine football was diminutive Mario Trafeli.

Outstanding in the Wayne line were Jack Cotton, Dick Ashcom, Mike Urdea, John Clements, Vic Hanson, Ken Cotter, Bruce Roberts, and Dave Brewster.

In the backfield outstanding men in addition to Cherup, Newman, Trafeli, and Mistele, were fullback Bill Hobbs, halfback Joe Rzepka, and Bob Siegfried.

The final game of the season found Wayne and U of D meeting each other on Thanksgiving morning in almost zero weather. Playing on a field frozen hard the Titans took advantage of every scoring chance to defeat Wayne 33 to 13.

Wayne completed 19 out of 33 passes and made more first downs than the Titans, but the Tartar ground attack failed to function. While the Titans were scoring most of their touchdowns on long runs, the Tartars were advancing through the air. The score was the smallest margin of victory for the Titans in the history of competition between the two teams.

While Wayne had ended up the 1944-45 season with a record of 11 wins and five defeats, the Tartars did a complete about face in the 1945-46 season with a record of six victories while they lost 11.
It was the fifth losing season in the number of years that Coach Newman Ertell has been coaching at Wayne.

Others were Wayne Montgomery, Harvey Pierce, George Shuk, Del Terrill, Del Russell, Bob Seigfreid, John Clements, and Emil "Bones" Jones.

The student manager for the 1945-46 season was Eugene Avram.

BASKETBALL

Coach Newman Ertell's 1945-46 squad probably had a bigger turnover than any other squad of former years.

Among the men who played for the Tartars at one time or another during the season were: Jim Alexander, Bernard Freidman, Art Foerster, William T. Collins, Walt Szkarlat, Bob Smilay, Jim Kay, Ernest Quarles, Dan Arnold, Avery Jackson, Abe Parness, Don Torres, and Roy Klein.

Wayne's 1945-46 basketball season proved to be one of the most puzzling in the University's history. The Tartars opened the season defeating five opponents in a row as they turned back Western Ontario, Albion, Michigan State Normal, Toronto, and Cincinnati. Then the squad's luck seem to run out on them and they proceeded to lose 11 of the next 12 games.

But that doesn't give the whole picture. While the Tartars did end up the season with one of their worst records in terms of wins and losses, but few of the victories were walk-a-ways.

The season's record of wins and losses doesn't say anything about the two narrow five point and one point victories the Michigan State Spartans eked out. Or the two point victory Akron got from Wayne, or Normal's two point victory in the second game.

The record doesn't say anything about the injuries that cut down Coach Ertell's first team early in the year when Jim Alexander was forced to leave the lineup, or tell that many of the games away were played without the aid of two of the Tartars best men, Wayne Montgomery and Avery Jackson.

While the Tartars played all of their home games at Mackenzie this year, the prospects that Wayne will be playing in the Olympia or the Coliseum, next year, appear bright. With the entrance of the Tartars into the Mid-America Conference the whole basketball picture will take on a new outlook. All the talk of Wayne entering the big-time at last seems to have become fact. With the Tartars in a conference it will almost be a prerequisite that they stage their games in a larger more accessible place, such as the Coliseum or Olympia.

Coach Newman Ertell this year produced his fifth losing team in the 21 years that he has been coaching Wayne basketball.

While all the other coaches of teams the Tartars met were getting back former players from the services each week, Ertell was forced to rely largely upon men new to the university.

It was this probably more than anything else that led to the Tartars' poor showing.

A complete record of the season's games and the scores is printed below.

TRACK

Plagued by injuries and other troubles the Wayne Cross-country squad finished the season without a victory. In five dual meets the Tartars lost two each to Oberlin and Miami while dropping one to Michigan State.

Running in the NCAA meet at the end of the year at East Lansing over Michigan State's course, the harriers came up with an eighth place.

COACH DAVID HOLMES

The 1946 indoor and outdoor track team had one of the toughest and most impressive schedules in the University's history. In the indoor season, the Tartars defeated Chicago and Michigan Normal while losing to Michigan State. In addition the Tartars ran in the Michigan State Relays, CCC, and the Purdue Relays.

For the outdoor season Coach David L. Holmes had meets scheduled with Cincinnati, Purdue, Toledo, Michigan Normal, and Western Michigan in addition to sending men to the Penn Relays in Philadelphia and the State Intercollegiate meet at Kalamazoo.

COACH NORMAN WANN

Added to these returned lettermen were some former Wayne netters plus many returned veterans who had placed high in tennis competition in high school or at another university.

Among the universities and colleges the Tartars were scheduled to meet during the season were Purdue, Oberlin, Cincinnati, Ohio State, Michigan, Toledo, U of D, Western Michigan, Michigan State, Kalamazoo, Western Reserve, and Central Michigan.

As in the past the Tartars played all of their home matches at the Detroit Tennis Club.

TENNIS

Tennis coach Norman Wann expected one of the best tennis seasons in Wayne's history when his squad opened its season April 16 with a match against the University of Illinois at Illinois.

Wann's biggest problem at the start of practice early in February had been to select his best men for the squad. With a record turnout of over 30 men the problem was not an easy one. But when the first match rolled around Wann had reduced his squad to the right number.

Back from the 1945 team that lost only to Notre Dame, Michigan, and Michigan State were Bob Ryland, Del Russell, Phil Schreiber, and Bob Lewandowski.

FENCING

The Wayne University fencing team ended up the 1945-46 season with the best record in the University's history. Represented by a team for the first time in seven years, the Tartars won eight dual matches while losing but one to Ohio State by the score of 14 to 13. Later in the year the Tartars reversed this earlier decision and defeated the Buckeyes 14 to 13 here in Detroit. Among the teams that were defeated by the Wayne fencers were Michigan State, twice; Chicago, twice; Ohio State, once; Toronto, once; and Western Ontario, twice.

BASEBALL

The Wayne baseball squad faced the toughest schedule in its history this year as it prepared for the start of competition.

In contrast to three long, lean war years when material was scarce, Coach Joe Truskowski found over 60 men out for practice at the start of the season.

After several weeks of practice the squad opened its season against Cincinnati on the first road trip out of the state ever taken by a Wayne baseball squad.

Other teams that the Tartars played during the season included Louisville, Miami, University of Michigan, Michigan State, Toledo, Hillsdale, Michigan State Normal, Western Michigan, University of Detroit, and Central Michigan.

Back to guide the Tartars in their first year of peacetime competition since 1941 was Joe Truskowski who, like many of his players, had spent three years in the Navy.

Blest with unexpectedly good spring weather the squad managed to get outdoors to Kelsey Field for practice by the middle of March. After thinning out his squad Truskowski moved practice over to Northwestern Field where Wayne also played all of the home games.

Wayne opened the home season at Northwestern April 20 when it entertained the Michigan Wolverines.

COACH LEO MAAS

SWIMMING

Returning to competition for the first time since 1942 the Wayne swimming team rounded out its season with a record of three wins and four losses.

While the Tartars encountered little trouble with teams such as Case and Oberlin, the stronger teams like Great Lakes and Michigan were much too powerful for the Wayne squad.

Competing in the CCC conference meet at East Lansing the Tartars with a total of 50 points finished in second place behind Michigan State out of a field of five teams. Michigan State had 77 points to win.

Back to bolster the Wayne squad this year were such former Wayne stars as Bill Prew, Bob Gardner, and Leroy Ogle. Other well known swimmers were Armand Edgar, Sandy Sinkiewicz, Doug Trites, and Ray Niver.

Other men who rounded out the squad were Bob Knorr, Roy Pouliot, Ron Williams, and Bill Sapfford. Another old timer was Freeman Flynn who swam in but one meet, the Central Collegiates.

Wayne opened its season with a lop sided victory over the Case team, 65 to 10. Michigan and Great Lakes each defeated Wayne before the Tartars broke back into the win column with a victory over Case and Oberlin.

Great Lakes and Michigan defeated the Tartars a second time to bring the dual meet season to a close.

GOLF

Boasting the toughest schedule in the University's history the Tartar golf squad opened their season with a six match southern trip. Meeting the University of California in the opener on April 15, the Wayne team moved on to dual matches with the University of South Carolina, Georgia Tech, University of the South, Ohio State, and Cincinnati.

COACH LAWRENCE RUSSELL

Other teams that Wayne played during the season were the University of Michigan, University of Detroit, Toledo University, Michigan State, Western Michigan, Illinois Tech, and the University of Notre Dame.

Back from the 1945 squad that lost only to the University of Notre Dame were Stan Setera, Les Lemack, and Steve Scherer. Added to this group were 20 other candidates, most of whom boasted some previous high school or college experience.

Aided by good weather the Tartars managed to get onto the links in late March so that coach Lawrence Russell had his squad picked and ready for competition in plenty of time for the first meet.

WOMEN'S ATHLETICS

A successful year of women's sports has been completed, under the sponsorship of the W.A.A. The aim of the program is to provide recreational activities for the women of Wayne University. For the '45-'46 school year, the organization was under the leadership of Betty Smith, a Senior in the College of Education. The faculty sponsor was Miss Louise T. Paine.

Three basketball tournaments were completed this year. Alpha Theta Sigma won the sorority basketball championship. The Sophomores won the class tournament from the Juniors by the score of 22-18. The independent tournament was decisively won by the Purple Flashes.

Lourie Kaltz, basketball head, was responsible for the fine organization of these tournaments.

UNIVERSITY DANCE GROUPS

The Wayne Student Dance Group, under the direction of Mrs. Julia Sanford, and the Wayne University Workshop Dance Group, under the direction of Miss Ruth L. Murray and Miss Delia Hussey, were two of the busiest groups on campus this past year. The Wayne Student Dance Group's program was highlighted by the W.A.A. Christmas Program and Mother's Day Program, Wintermart, and the Modern Dance Guild Program at the Jewish Center in April.

The Wayne University Workshop Group climaxed the '45-'46 year with their own annual Spring Dance Concert in May in the Rackham auditorium. On several other occasions, the Group collaborated with Mr. Lemke, of the music department, and the String Ensemble. The Workshop Group also appeared on the first Youth Festival Program at the Rackham auditorium.

Both Groups originate their own dances by interpreting from records, manuscripts, and current literary themes.

... ever stop to think — when you turned on the burner of a Gas range, grabbed an after-school snack from Mom's Servel refrigerator, turned on a hot water tap or set a room thermostat — what convenience Gas had brought to the world?

... probably not, but it's something to consider when some day, not in the too distant future, you may be planning your own home. In that home, you'll want convenience, economy, dependable and trouble-free performance from your range, your refrigerator, your water heater and your heating unit.
